

Custom Newsletters

Share coverage and content in branded digital newsletters from the Notified PR Platform.

Use Custom Newsletters to create eye-catching emails to share GlobeNewswire press releases, earned media coverage, and owned and contributed content without time-consuming design and manual content compiling from multiple sources.

Keep your stakeholders informed with relevant content from your Notified PR Platform search profiles. Our custom newsletters curate a feed of content to share in branded emails. Tailor your newsletters to include content from Listen, metrics data and sections with text, images, or videos.

It's easy and fast to create and send Custom Newsletters with Notified.

See information about published newsletters including number of recipients, the recipients list, and the delivery status for each recipient. Resend the newsletter to additional recipients anytime.

Custom Newsletters allows you to easily send information to employees, agency partners, clients, customers, investors, or other relevant audiences to keep them informed.
